

The craft worked well and we should do the same, tree decorations, pva glue and glitter needed.
Paul C confirmed the bar needs to be moved to be in a more prominent place as people couldn't see it.
Mike said next year we could use the car port as well.
Kathy said the children's drinks would be better next to the craft table.
Emily said she would try and get the band together the week leading up to the event for a rehearsal.
The timing for Father Christmas and the band need to co-ordinate, so they don't clash.
Kathy confirmed we used 18 bottles of mulled wine, maybe have smaller cups next year.
The free cake/mince pie was a nice gesture as people were willing to pay, so same next year.
Advertise Halloween/Christmas in the September/October Standard.
We had 21 selection boxes left over which we donated to the playgroup as a thank you for the tree decorations.

3. The Stutton Standard

Emily will do the next issue of the Stutton Standard by the end of January.
It was agreed that that we should do an overview of the years events with a montage of photos.
The following are to do a small article for the next edition.

Actions

Chris Morris to write about the committee, what we do, what we have done over the year.
Paul Spurrier to write about the success of Bonfire night
Mike Grayson to write about Stan's shooting day from the auction.
Julie Chadwick to write about Christmas.
Emily to write about bulb planting.
Nadine Meillam to write about Halloween
Lynsay to do a recipe, however if there's not enough room to leave out.
Spotlight on Stutton for January is The Nussey's

Please can all the articles be emailed to Emily by mid January, however the sooner the better.

4. Future Considerations

We agreed to hold a coffee morning in the village hall, which will be free. This will give everyone a chance to meet their neighbours and meet the committee and for us to find out what other events people would like us to do. This will be done on Saturday 11th February 2017 10am to 12 noon. Cake donations welcome.

Action

Emily to book the village hall.
Chris Morris to advertise on facebook
Lynsay to make & put up posters.
All to make cakes/buns
And as many to be available on the day.

Easter Sunday

We have decided to do the same as this year.
Treasure hunt
Craft table/Easter Bonnets competition.
Easter Eggs for the children.

Action

Easter will be planned at the next meeting.

Clay Shoot

Provisionally booked for Sunday 2nd April, cost will be approx £30 Inc.
breakfast.

Action

Mike to book/confirm details.

Golf & Karting

No details arranged yet.

Action

Paul Spurrier will get some details regarding these events and will come back with dates/prices.

Races

No details arranged yet.

Action

Paul Chadwick to get details of Ripon/York races and will come back to us with date/prices.

5. Village Hall

The village hall was discussed, but we are waiting for feedback from Chris Metcalfe before we can discuss further.

6. Close

Emily thanked everyone for coming and arranged the next meeting, on Thursday 19th January 2017, 7pm in the Church.
